

Planned Deceit, Religions Unified and the Mark of Beast

Fred R. Coulter—December 6, 2014

Greetings, everyone! Welcome to Sabbath services. The last few weeks do you feel worn out with all of the protests and all of the riots and all of the burning and all of the lies, and everything like that? As we will see, there is a reason for it. All of this was planned!

‘Never let a good crisis go to waste.’ Who said that? Rahm Emanuel! If watching all of the television you get emotionally involved in these things—and it’s hard not to get emotionally involved in it—but it is a perfect example of half-truths/partial-truths with big lies behind it. They just recently uncovered—and I don’t think they have announced it anywhere—except maybe on Breitbart and it was on Fox News on television—about where all the money coming to pay these professional rioters: George Soros and all of the little organizations behind it.

Think on this: It was rather dramatic. When President Obama was speaking about peace and don’t riot and don’t get carried away, that’s when the riots broke out. Was that a coincidence? Remember, nothing in politics happens by coincidence! It is planned!

There are always many people alert to many facets of what’s going on that understand what’s going on at the level that they see it, but they don’t understand the greater scope of what is happening in the plan of God!

When we read some of these things, or some of their books, or some of the news reports, we get a partial part of it and we have to do like we do with the Scriptures: put ‘line upon line, precept upon precept,’ and so forth, to come to the Truth. But let’s see what we are dealing with here:

Revelation 12:9: “And the great dragon was cast out, the ancient serpent who is called the Devil and Satan, who is deceiving the whole world...” It’s very interesting; this is a present tense verb, meaning on-going. The reason why Rev. is hard to understand is because it’s spoken in literal and symbolic language combined together. It was meant to be understood completely in the end-times, because that’s what it was written for.

As I started in one sermon, and I’ll finish it in a couple of other sermons down the road, you have to know and have a good understanding of the rest of the Bible in order to understand what Revelation is talking about.

Sidebar: It’s like one man I knew years ago when I was a mortgage broker and a real estate broker and he worked for me. He was parked down here. I came down from exercising on my treadmill. I was getting in my car and he said, ‘Oh hi, Fred. We got to talking a little bit and he knows that I do what we’re doing and everything. And he says, ‘You know that the 144,000 in Rev. is symbolic language; it’s a metaphor.’ If you don’t know who the children of Israel are and where their descendants are today, you don’t know that it’s talking literally about 12,000 out of each of the 12 tribes; unless you have that Bible Truth. He’s a good Seventh Day Adventist.

About the week before my wife was in the grocery store and here comes up this man to her and first thing he said was, ‘Did you know that the 144,000 in the book of Revelation is symbolic and my minister explained it to me.’ Dolores said, ‘He’s full of beans. He doesn’t know his Bible. You have to prove all things.’

Do you know why the Protestants are so wrong? They try to understand difficult Scriptures without understanding the background behind it! Everything that they have concerning why the Law is done away is based on misinterpretation, mistranslation and a complete lack of understanding of Judaism. They keep it in the realm of ‘old Catholic/old Protestant’ argument. That is not true.

That’s why we have done the Faithful Version to correct all the errors of the King James Version. When you read Appendix Z, Understanding Paul’s Difficult Scriptures—please read and study Appendix Z—we have it there so that you can understand those difficult Scriptures.

Rev. 12 proves the point. Satan, who is ‘deceiving the whole world’ was cast down to the earth and ‘his angels were cast down with him.’ Why are people blinded? Let’s see how Satan operates in the world, and let’s see how that’s different from what it should be with the Truth of the Bible. If you haven’t heard any of this before, ask yourself:

1. How much Truth am I prepared to accept?
2. How much Truth am I prepared to reject?
3. How many lies do I believe?
4. How many lies am I willing to reject?

Satan is also called ‘the prince of the power of the air’ working in the whole world. Let’s read this compared to the true ministry of what it should be with those who know the Bible. Here’s what Paul writes, and remember that all Scripture—each and every word—is God-breathed or God-Spirited and has layered meanings in many places.

2-Corinthians 4:1: “Therefore, having this ministry...” What is this ministry? Preaching the Gospel of the Truth:

- about salvation
- about the Holy Spirit
- about the grace of God
- concerning sin

all buried within that one statement there.

“...according as we have received mercy, we are not fainthearted. For we have personally renounced the hidden things of dishonest gain...” (vs 1-2). That’s a hard thing to do. There are many things that are hidden that are dishonest that are a gain to you in some way, which may not necessarily be monetarily.

“...not walking in cunning craftiness...” (v 2). Not having a political agenda; not having a hidden meaning behind what you are doing and saying.

“...nor handling the Word of God deceitfully... [that is a main thing] ...but by manifestation of the Truth... “ (v 2) That’s what it always has to be, bring out the Truth.

- What is the Truth?
- What is the Word of God?
- How do we see the world?
- How do we analyze what’s going on?
- How can we make sense out of the things that we see coming into our lives through the television telling us what the world is like?

Think about it. If you were some of the Waldensians back in the 13-1400s living up in the Alps, peaceful, no one bothering you. The men were merchants, traveled all through Europe and they secretly brought pages of the New Testament and gave those to their clients.

Today it’s totally different. It’s hard to have any peace at all, lest you turn off the radio, television, the Internet, your cell phone, unhook your phone at home and turn out the lights and go to bed. Some people are so ‘in’ to things that as soon as they get in their car, they have to continue the brainwashing by pounding that stupid music into their heads. They go down the street and try and pound it into your house, too.

“...manifestation of the Truth, we are commending ourselves to every man’s conscience before God. But if our Gospel is hidden, it is hidden to those who are perishing; in whom the god of this world... [or age] ...has blinded the minds of those who do not believe...” (vs 2-4).

There is marginal blinding, a little more blinding, half-blinding, three-quarters blinding and totally blinding. That’s exactly what is happening in the world. What do we have to counteract all of this in our lives? The whole Word of God! Plus all the means to preach, teach and reproduce it and get it out there in printed word, audio, video, whatever there is. Think about how important it is when compared to what’s going on in the world.

“...has blinded the minds of those who do not believe...” (v 4). That’s why it’s important that you know the Truth, prove the Truth, understand the Truth.

“...lest the light of the Gospel of the glory of Christ, Who is the image of God, should shine unto them” (v 4). Lest they understand the Word of God!

The ones who were cold will come up in the second resurrection. When they come up in the second resurrection I bet most of the Protestants will think, ‘We’re all in heaven here.’ And we will say, ‘No, not quite. This is the Kingdom of God.’ Really?

- Did you know that it’s been here for a thousand years? Really?
- Did you know that Christ and all the saints are ruling over the whole world? Really? I thought I was in heaven.

No, you believed the lie, but since it wasn’t the unpardonable sin, God had mercy on you to give you a second life in the flesh so you can have an opportunity for salvation. By the way, Satan is no longer here. So what a time that’s going to be.

Verse 5: “For we do not preach our own selves...” Key thing in teaching! To any elder, minister, teacher, evangelist, or so-called apostle, if you preach yourself you’re headed for trouble and a fall and a trial. We’ve seen that, yes, indeed!

“...but Christ Jesus the Lord, and ourselves your servants for Jesus’ sake Because it is God Who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, Who shined into our hearts the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ” (vs 5-6). That’s the whole thing that will be the sonship of God.

As I mentioned, I have started writing From a Speck of Dust to a Son of God: Why Were You Born? We’re going to divide it down into two parts:

1. from Adam and Eve to Christ
2. from Christ to the sonship of God

Planned Deceit

Let’s talk about evil and deception that is going on in the world. This is quite a thing. Let’s tie the deceitful mind and the deceits of Satan the devil together with these Scriptures. We’re talking about all the people in the world. They are out there in the world and here’s what it gets down to, like with the atheists 100%, agnostics maybe 70-90%. Then you get down to Protestants anywhere from 50-70%.

Romans 8:5: “For those who walk according to the flesh mind the things of the flesh... [all the human things] ...but those who walk according to the Spirit mind the things of the Spirit.” Here we are in this world of deception having the Spirit of God, knowing the Truth of God, and our lives need to be occupied minding the things of the Spirit:

- growing
- changing
- overcoming
- not being deceived

The whole thing is that we have to get rid of the sin within by active choice and conversion and having God change our minds.

Verse 6: “For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.” Let me just tell you this. Sabbath-keeping today should be the real key to our peace in this insane world so we can get away from it. That’s why we have it every seven days.

Think of what it would be if we didn’t have the Sabbath. Think what it’s like for the people out there in the world. They may have some of the Truth, part of the Truth, they may be totally deceived, whatever it is, but think how difficult it is for them. But God has chosen the few and God is converting those who will yield to Him. Minding the things of the Spirit!

Verse 7: “Because the carnal mind... [the mind of the flesh] ...is enmity against God...” How receptive do you think it is when a minister in the pulpit says, ‘The Law of God has been done away.’ Oh, what a relief it is!

“...for it is not subject to the Law of God; neither indeed can it be” (v 7). One test: God says to keep the Sabbath, what are you doing on Saturday?

Verse 8: “But those who are in the flesh cannot please God.” Let’s add another Scripture to it: the human heart ‘is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked.’ But the nice little person would say, ‘That’s not me; I am good. I am honest. I go to Mass every day at six in the morning.’ Because they cannot identify evil because Satan gives benefits and mixes in good and evil.

Let’s see what is happening here in the world. This is from the book, How Evil Works by David Kupelian. Wonderful book; it has a lot of things in it. Haven’t preached from this for a long time.

We’re going to explode some brilliant examples of the “marketing of truth.” Mind you, these people do it without resorting to lying so they have a distinct disadvantage compared to those who defend the indefensible for a living and are unconstrained by any requirements to be truthful. For deceivers spin, is how their mind works 24/7.

Does that remind you of someone you see on television very often?

Their ability to instantly conjure up plausible sounding rationalizations to twist the narrative to make their side sound credible with cherry-picked facts and half truths and very importantly to smear their accusers become second nature.

Isn’t that what you see on the news? With all these blacks rioting, most of them being paid to riot, there are some blacks who know the truth. They stand up and there was one football player from the New Orleans Saints, his last name is Watson, who coined the phrase: It’s not the color of the skin, it’s the sin within! He knows enough about Christ that every human being, it doesn’t matter what the color is on the outside, the deceitfulness of the mind on the inside and the criminality that lurks in there all the time, is what the problem is.

Politicians massage all of this. Think about the merchants of racism who by the way receive a lot of money from the infamous man that I mentioned earlier (George Soros).

Sidebar: I hate to think what it’s going to be after President Obama is out of office, if they can get him out of office, and he goes back home to Chicago, and he has his non-profit corporation set up so he can help convert the nation more to the ways of socialism, also an alliance with all of the race-baiters. I don’t know if you watch CNN. Did they ever report that Al Sharpton has been to the White House 90 times. So who is purveying spinning the lies as if it’s true? Here’s what they do:

Their ability to instantly conjure up plausible-sounding rationalizations to twist the narrative to make their signs sound credible with cherry-picked facts, half-truths, and very importantly to smear their accusers becomes second nature.

You did it; you did it; they did it; my successor did it.

Regular folks on the other hand tend not to see any reason to spin or present their cause in any special way.

Then it talks about American traditional values should be opposing all the social values and American traditional values originally came from the Bible in the first place.

Buried in the battlefield are all the mines the other side has planted. If you step on one, you're a bigot. If you step on that one, you're a war-monger, or a racist, or greedy.

Isn't that what happens? Yes, indeed! For example: We don't want any government-paid benefits going to the illegal aliens. 'Oh, you don't have a heart. You're cruel and mean. You're a bigot.' OR we should be keeping the Sabbath and the Holy Days of God. 'Where do you come from?'

It is our universal human imperfection which tends to make us vulnerable to seductions.

Let's talk a little bit more about politicians here and we can put this into the realm of most newscasting.

There's one technique that reigns supreme as the king of all propaganda weapons and that is lying. To make evil look good and good appear to be evil you have to lie. And it's the big lies. There's dark magic in boldly lying, in telling a big lie repeatedly with a straight face and with confidence and authority. One of the greatest liars of the last century, Adolph Hitler, taught that the bigger the lie, the more believable it was.

And look what happened to Europe. Look what happened to all of Germany. Literally a nation possessed. Think about what's happening here. Are we going down that same road?

During World War II the U.S. government's office of strategic services, a precursor to today's CIA, assessed Hitler's method this way. His primary rules were: never allow the public to cool off.

Never admit a fault or wrong. Never concede that there may be some good in your enemy. Never leave room for alternatives. Never accept blame for anything. Concentrate on one enemy at a time and blame him for everything that goes wrong. People will believe a big lie sooner than a little lie. If you repeat it frequently enough, people will sooner or later believe it.

That's why it's said that over generations you've been taught lies, when someone comes along to speak the truth he will be looked upon as a raving lunatic. Yes! So, here's what Hitler himself wrote, straight from the mind of Satan the devil.

"In the big lie there is always a certain force of credibility..."

I want you to think about Jonathan Gruber, the man from MIT, ObamaCare architect. If you don't have Fox News you better watch it, you better see some of those things so you know what's going on. He said, 'We got ObamaCare through because of the stupidity of the American people' and he knowingly did not give the facts. He said in another place, 'If it doesn't work, it will implode of itself and we knew that the rates would go up.' But what did the President say? It'll go down $2500 a year! Thank you, Mr. President, I want my $2500 this year.

...because the broad masses of a nation are always more easily corrupted in the deeper strata of their emotional nature than consciously or voluntarily...

In other words, you never bring the true facts, you always emotionally present your side. So if you can get people involved emotionally... 'Oh well, yes, the police force is hunting down blacks everywhere.' Yet, the statistics showed that last year there were only 129 blacks killed by the police and 394 whites were killed by the police.

'Oh, but those statistics don't matter. It's an epidemic everywhere. And besides, we need to be allowed to steal a little and cheat a little and have a few drugs and have a little marijuana and to cheat the system and to keep as many people as we want on the social security roles, even when they are dead, because the automatic deposit into the checking account works wonderfully, because I'm a signer on it. Isn't that nice?' Think of it!

"...and thus in the primitive simplicity of their minds, non-thinking, non-critical, emotional..."

And how many of them are wrapped up in music, entertainments, sports, their own problems in life. How many are wrapped up in sin, adultery, fornication, homosexuality. Well, they'll believe anything. 'We'll make it so that you can go anywhere and do anything. Isn't that wonderful?' I like this:

"...thus in the primitive simplicity of their minds..."

That's what Gruber said, the stupidity of the American people. What did Nancy Pelosi say? 'This 2300 page bill—which nobody read—you've got to pass it to read it, then you'll know what's in it.' Gruber said, 'We wrote it in such a way as to camouflage everything that we were saying so that it would not be understandable to the average person. Then what we do we give it to the human services department and the IRS and they exercise their authority to give the wrong kind of treatment for the sickness and to extract money from them because it's a tax law and the Supreme Court stupidly said it's a tax.' That's what it really was all together. Have we been lied to?

If you think that's bad, you're probably sitting there saying it's bad. Try all Sunday-keeping churches, because all the lying started there first! And all the nice and good preachers who were so good on Sunday, smiling and nice and smooth with all of their uniforms on and all of this are liars.

Remember, this is written by Hitler. This had to come straight from the mind of 'the god of this world' that blinds the minds of them. Remember, Jesus said, 'The eye is the light of the body. If the light be in you is darkness, how great is that darkness.' So, the light that shines into these people is the darkness of Satan the devil.

"They more readily fall victims to the big lie than the small lie... [notice why] ...since they themselves often tell small lies in little matters, but would be ashamed to resort to tell large-scale falsehoods.

How many times have you come up to a person and they smile at you and shake the hand and say, 'It's so nice to know you,' and in their mind they say what an idiot. 'I'm so glad to see you, but I hate your guts'—inside. The deceitfulness of the human mind; the wickedness of the thoughts inside.

That's what we are called, through the grace of God, through the Holy Spirit of God that we can have those things cleaned out of our minds. It is true that we can make proper judgments on proper things. When there is something that is really evil, we can say it is evil, but we don't deceive other people and deceive ourselves by putting on 'nicey-nicey' things when it is not true.

"It would never come into their heads to fabricate colossal untruths...

'But it comes into my mind.' Hitler had all of them, colossal.

"They would not believe that others would have the impudence to distort the truth so infamously. Even though the facts which proved this could be so, may be brought clearly to their minds, even though you tell them the truth.

Let's give you a good example. Let's just do this. How many Sunday-keepers know which day is the Sabbath? All of them, because they go to church on the first day of the week, so therefore, they know which day is the seventh day of the week. They will all tell you the Bible says Sabbath, but.... Never stopping to ask the question: What man has the right to change what God has made? What right does the created have to go to the Creator and say, 'Lord, I've got a better idea. Sunday is better. Just think, we can get more people in church on Sunday.'

"Even though the facts which prove this to be so may be brought clearly to their minds, they will still doubt and waiver and will continue to think that there may be some other explanation. For the grossly impudent lie always leaves traces behind it, even after it has been nailed down, a fact which is known to all expert liars in this world and to all who conspire together in the art of lying. These people know only too well how to use falsehood for the basest purposes."

- Did he know what he was doing?
- Did he understand what he was doing?
- Is it possible for a person, without the Holy Spirit, to commit the unpardonable sin?

Let's reverse it:

- When Hitler is resurrected will he repent?
- Don't know!

But with this it is totally deliberate from day one!

We'll cover some other things in just a little bit, but that's what's going on in the world. If we do not repent as a nation, remember that these things come upon us because we don't repent. Where it needs to start is in the pulpits and in the houses of government everywhere. It's going to get worse.

Go on National Geographic Channel (NatGeo) sometime and watch Drug, Inc. Drugs are so pervasive; they are everywhere. That's got to stop, too. The user, the seller, the importer, the manufacturer.

Do you think God is going to lift any of the penalties from all of the sins that we have—the lying, the cheating, the adultery, fornication, breaking of the Sabbath, breaking of the Holy Days, the observing of all the pagan holidays of this world? and Telling us how wonderful and how nice and how good it is? People are so adamantly deceived in it that even Bill O'Reilly who says he wants the facts, he wants the truth, but he won't accept the truth about Jesus, but he wrote the book, Killing Jesus. Yet, he says he attacks everyone who is against Christmas. Amazing!

So, we need to understand what the world is out there, what it is like, and why God says to the Laodiceans, 'because you have a certain amount of Truth and you know that you get smug and indifferent.' The only way that you stay right with God in this evil world is to be zealous.

You need to really use the Sabbath for that day to connect you always to God. There's enough coming down during the week. I know it does to me, it does to you, it does to everybody else, that we need the Sabbath Day to sort of give us a protective dome to get under to receive God's Spirit, to understand how we need to be with God!

(go to the next track)

Religions Unified

I think you will find it interesting that in the world today, as we view the things that are taking place in the world and, of course, it's the first time in the history of the world that we can have instantaneous communication from anywhere in the world at any time.

Remember when there was the earthquake in Japan? Right away we had all the things going on and we could see the tsunami wave coming in and wiping everything out, just like that. What does it say in Matt. 24? There shall be earthquakes in different places!

In Rev. 17 we have symbolic language. If you don't know the truth of it, if you don't know about the Babylonian mystery religions, if you do not know about the woman who is the counterfeit of the Church of God that goes back to Jezebel, then you won't understand it.

Revelation 17:1: "And one of the seven angels who had the seven vials came and spoke with me, saying to me, 'Come here; I will show you the judgment of the great whore who sits upon many waters.'" The Bible interprets itself:

Verse 15: "Then he said to me, 'The waters that you saw, where the whore sits, are peoples and multitudes and nations and languages.'" A worldwide thing.

Verse 18: "And the woman whom you saw is the great city that has royal power over the kings of the earth." Since a woman pictures a church and since she is a great whore, that means she is doing the things that are against God, yet, to the world appears to be of God.

What one church in the whole world has ambassadors from every nation in the world? The Vatican! No other church! So, you take the symbolic language and you look at the facts and this is not symbolic, this is true.

Verse 2: "'With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication...'"—made alliances with the various religions. We will see more than just the Roman Catholic Church, she had daughters. What happens when daughters grow up? They are women, so now you have more than one woman; many religions.

"...and those who dwell on the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication" (v 2). Does that mean had a great wine factory over here and made wine and the whole earth got drunk? No! That is language saying that this is spiritual intoxication because of wrong doctrine. Has the world been deceived by all the religions of the world? Yes, indeed!

Verse 3: "Then he carried me away in the spirit to a wilderness; and I saw a woman sitting upon a scarlet beast that had seven heads and ten horns, full of names of blasphemy." Scarlet beast has to take you back to Dan. 2, 5, 7; Rev. 13 and all of them give the interpretation of what it means.

Go online to the Vatican website and watch their ceremonies, and here's what you will see, v 4: "And the woman was clothed in purple and scarlet, and was adorned with gold and pearls and precious stones; and she had a golden cup in her hand, filled with abominations and the filthiness of her fornication."

- Have you ever watched a papal Mass? Everything there is gold!
- Have you ever seen the big tower that is the supposedly throne canopy in the Vatican, made of serpentine columns?
- Who is the serpent?
- Who does that commemorate?

It all comes out when you understand what it's talking about is real.

Verse 5: "And across her forehead a name was written: MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." The daughters come home.

- Did the Roman Catholic Church kill true Christians who wouldn't submit? Yes!
- Have the Muslims killed true Christians? Yes!
- Have the Buddhists killed true Christians? Yes!

All of the other religions of the world have killed true Christians!

Verse 6: "And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus...." This is interesting because it tells us two things:

1. the saints are those who have the Holy Spirit
2. the martyrs are those unconverted people who are for Jesus but not converted

They will stand for Jesus but will be killed. God's not going to forget them. Then He says that He will show her the mystery of it.

Since it's all nations, all religions, let me read you something; let's frame this in the way that it should be framed. This pope is supposed to be the last of the Catholic prophecies of popes; the last pope. Every time I look at him I say to myself that he doesn't look like he's going to live too long. If he dies, do you think that will end the Catholic Church? How do you think that they are going to explain it?

Look at all the churches that have had false prophecies that it came up to the time, remember Harold Camping: 'The Lord is going to come on this day. I was off a year. He's going to come on this day. Sorry, I was wrong, but thank you for all your money. I spent it; you don't get any back.' They always come up with a new doctrine.

I'll read this and then we can draw a scenario and we will see. This is from the NTEB News Desk (Now The End Begins). It's some religious organization. I'll have to look it up. The headline is:

Pope Francis unites Hindus, Muslims, and Buddhists to sign a pact with Rome

NTEB News Desk, Dec. 2, 2014
(nowtheendbegins.com/blog/?p=28667)

Did you know that they are allowing Muslim prayers in the Vatican? Did you know that last week an imam gave the opening prayer in the House of Representatives? So much is happening, it's almost impossible to keep up on it! But think on that for a minute, because people have been convinced if all religions could get together and help control the people, so 'we don't fight and war against each other, wouldn't that be a wonderful thing and we would have world peace.' They're going to need something else to do it. So here's the article:

Rome is very smart, always has been.

That's why we have in the appendices of the Faithful Version Bible, Appendix N, Rome's Challenge to the Protestants, why they should keep the Sabbath and not Sunday, written in 1893. It was published in The Baltimore Mirror four Sabbaths in a row in July. You read that.

They know that in order to unite the faiths, they must focus on humanitarian projects that nearly everyone can agree on and work together to try and solve. It doesn't matter whether it's about poverty, perceived injustice, abortion, slavery or any other subject. These are all mental conditioning exercises that Pope Francis is conducting to get all the religions into the same tent. Once everyone is together, Rome will be the leader. And as you can see, it's working beautifully.

Are you so mean that you wouldn't want to help these poor starving people? You mean you wouldn't give them any food? You say you're Christian and you condemn us for what we are doing and call us the great whore. What are you doing? Are you feeding the poor? You're already intimidated!

Religious leaders from a half-dozen faiths signed a new Vatican initiative Tuesday to end modern-day slavery by 2020...

All those who are slaves, sex slaves, slaves sold by the Muslims, and everything.

...declaring that human trafficking, organ trafficking and forced labor and prostitution are crimes against humanity.

Not against God but humanity.

Pope Francis was joined by the Hindu guru Mata Amritanandamayi, known as Amma, as well as Buddhist, Anglican, Orthodox, Jewish, Shiite and Sunni Muslim leaders in signing a joint declaration at an unusually high-profile ceremony inside the Vatican walls.

I imagine that is all on the Vatican website. I think it would be interesting to get that.

The declaration commits the signatories to do everything in their power within their faith communities...

They are not asking them to join the Catholic Church and believe their doctrines, but as grown daughters coming back to mamma. 'Mamma, you can't tell me what to do anymore; however, let's work together.' Have I not said that for how many years that was going to happen? Yes, and here it is right in front of our eyes!

...to work to free the estimated 35 million people enslaved across the world by 2020.

Isn't that a worthy project? Anyone who condemned that would not be Christian, would not believe in God. What about if people repent and then those things would stop because of repentance.

"In the eyes of God, each human being is a free person, whether girl, boy, woman or man, and is destined to exist for the good of all in equality and fraternity," the declaration read.

Francis has made eliminating modern-day slavery one of the key priorities of his pontificate, inspired by his ministry in the slums of Buenos Aires. Earlier this year, the Vatican launched the Global Freedom Network...

Oh, yes, here's another foundation to work, organization.

...a multi-faith initiative to encourage governments, businesses, educational and faith institutions to rid their supply chains of slave labor.

Now we will listen to a video. This is by Rick Warren, who was recently celebrating Mass at the Vatican with the pope.

Rick Warren on Catholicism, released by Catholic News Service, Nov. 26, 2014 (youtube.com/watch?v=6Ha031JXlc)

We have far more in common than what divides us. When you talk about Pentecostals, Charismatics, Evangelicals, Fundamentalists, Catholics, Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterians, on and on and on, they would all say, 'We believe in the Trinity. We believe in the Bible. We believe in the resurrection. We believe salvation is through Jesus Christ.' These are the big issues.

Some such Protestants think the Catholics worship Mary like she's another god. That's not exactly Catholic doctrine. There is the understanding—people say, 'What are the saints all about? Why are you praying to the saints?' When you understand what they mean by what they're saying, there's a whole lot more commonality. Now there's still real differences, no doubt about that, but the most important thing is if you love Jesus we're on the same team.

The unity that I think we would see realistically is not a structural unity, but a unity of mission. So when it comes to the family we are co-workers in the field in this for the protection of what we call the sanctity of life, the sanctity of sex and the sanctity of marriage. So there's a great commonality and there's no division on any of those three.

Many times people have been beaten down for taking a Biblical stance and they start to feel, 'Well, maybe I'm out here all by yourself.' No, you're not.

The church is growing in Latin America. The church is growing in Asia. The church is growing in Africa. It's not growing in North America or Europe, but it is growing everywhere else. So we kind of have this feeling that maybe we're not as influential, but we're far more influential than people realize.

Very interesting, isn't it? The way that you come to compromise the truth is by dialogue on things you agree upon. That way then we can soften you up from your hard stance on truth. See how cleverly that works? Just like we discussed, 'not structurally. You don't have to become part of the Roman Church, but your faith community can work toward the goals that we all agree upon.'

Since Pope Francis has started this wonderful, wonderful work and it's working in with Protestants because they have been beaten down and haven't repented. That warning of 1893 they didn't listen to, and it was a warning. So, now they'll be deceived. It's going to be greater. 'We're going to bring all churches back, all religions back.' They've planned for it for a long time.

Here it is World Scripture, A Comparative Anthology Of Sacred Texts—Editor, Andrew Wilson. I've given sermons on this and Church at Home on this. A comparative anthology of sacred texts. So it's got in here from the Bible, from the Koran, from the Hindu religion, from the Buddhist religion, from the Shinto religion, from Confucianism, from Animism, all of the good lovely things to make a world religion. They've got the book all ready.

Revelation 18:1: "And after these things I saw an angel descending from heaven, having great authority; and the earth was illuminated with his glory. And he cried out mightily with a loud voice, saying, 'Babylon the Great is fallen, is fallen, and has become a habitation of demons, and a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hated bird; because all nations have drunk of the wine of the fury of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the power of her luxury'" (vs 1-3).

Where do most of the profits of all the companies in the world come from? Why is the day after Thanksgiving called Black Friday? Because of witchcraft? No! The black symbolizes profit; red symbolizes non-profit, or debt. So, they have to have Black Friday, which kicks off the profit for the whole year for these companies. Many of them have 40% or more of their income come in during the time from Thanksgiving to the end of the year and into the after-holiday sales.

All nations. Just about every nation in the world today celebrates Christmas, even though they don't acknowledge Christ. 'But it's a good thing to do.' The truth be known all of us good pagans always do this and have done it for thousands of years.

Notice what the angel said, v 4: "And I heard another voice from heaven saying, 'Come out of her, My people... [that is the people who belong to God] ...so that you do not take part in her sins, and that you do not receive of her plagues, For her sins have reached as far as heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities. Render to her as she has rendered to you; and give to her double, even according to her works. In the cup that she mixed, give her back double. To the degree that she glorified herself and lives luxuriously, give to her as much torment and sorrow. For she says in her heart, "I sit a queen enthroned, and am not a widow; and in no way shall

I experience sorrow””” (vs 4-7). All of the daughters come home!

Let's look and see what the first seal says. The white horse. We don't know exactly when this started, but there has to always be a lot of groundwork working up to the final event, which depicts it clearly. I think this is how it's going to happen.

All of this good work that the pope is doing and the world will say, 'This is good work. Can you deny that it is good to keep people out of slavery?' No, you can't deny that! It is good to do it, but remember what tree did Adam and Eve eat of? The Tree of the Knowledge of good and evil! It's the evil that keeps you away from God.

Revelation 6:1: "And I looked when the Lamb opened one of the seals; and I heard one of the four living creatures say, like the sound of thunder, 'Come and see.' And I looked, and behold, there was a white horse; and the one who was sitting on it had a bow, and a crown was given to him; and he went out conquering, and to conquer" (vs 1-2).

Notice, there are no arrows, says a bow. Is all of this coming together being accomplished without a war? But is he conquering them bit-by-bit-by-bit? Yes, by bringing them home!

I don't know when this seal was opened or will there be a fulfillment of it this way. Everything we've seen leading up to this time is background work for this to be developed and Francis dies. BANG! Now then, what will be the opportunity? The Catholic Church is not going to go away when he dies. The other religions are not going to go away when he dies. What do they do? You find a new and better cause!

What could force all the 'religions' really to come back together in a very powerful way? A new pope! Since that prophecy did not work, now we have a new beginning. This is what the Catholic Church will stand for and all of the other churches of the world stand for as well. All the other religions together.

- we want to bring peace to this earth
 - ✓ Aren't you tired of war?
 - ✓ Aren't you tired of fighting?
 - ✓ Aren't you worn out from all of these things?
- we will help our governments to do this Doesn't that sound like a real thing that everyone would fall in line with?

We saw what Rick Warren said and he has probably been a Jesuit plant for years, as well as Kenneth Copeland and probably many others. They will all magically, because God is going to put it in their hearts to agree with Satan the devil, do it.

We know when the second seal is opened that's the beginning of the Great Tribulation. What they're going to find is this: 'We can see traces of Christianity in all these other religions with their good works. We can agree with that. After all now, we have a World Bible. What a wonderful thing.' We know the political power is going to come. This is important because this is already happening:

Revelation 13:4. "And they worshiped the dragon... [Satan the devil] ...who gave his authority to the beast..." There are two meanings to that:

1. the world government system that is coming
2. the leader of that

It applies to both. Just like with Dan. 2 with Nebuchadnezzar. He was the first king, but it was his empire; same thing.

"...And they worshiped the beast, saying, 'Who is like the beast? Who has the power to make war against him?'" (v 4). They were worshiping the dragon.

How many people in the world under the different ways of religion and ways of society do people worship Satan the devil? They can worship him because they don't worship the true God! If they are hooked on music they are worshiping Satan. If they are hooked on sports they are worshiping Satan the devil.

Then you take like any of these major sports—basketball, football, baseball—they all come together in the temple of where their team plays. They are all enthusiastic with it. They buy coats, hats, sweaters, shirts, luggage, shoes, all in honor of their god. Some of them frankly are more zealous than people in the Church of God, so a little think on that for a minute.

Verse 11: "And I saw another beast rising out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, but spoke like a dragon." Is this when the first seal is opened? Maybe what I just explained is what is going to happen! BANG! Here will come the last pope and that is going to be a magical thing on the earth.

Verse 12: "And he exercises all the authority of the first beast before him; and he causes the earth and those who dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed."

Let's tie a little bit more in on this. What do you find on the History Channel all the time? Ancient Aliens! Aliens brought religion to the earth. The Vatican is looking into things to try and find out about aliens. All of a sudden Satan manifests himself in such a powerful way. Now, the leader is the manifestation of God in the flesh and the pope is his spokesman and he calls fire down from heaven.

Verse 13: “And he performs great wonders, so that he even causes fire to come down to the earth from heaven in the sight of men. And he deceives those who dwell on the earth by means of the wonders that were given to him to perform in the sight of the beast...” (vs 13-14).

Everybody is set up with lies and emotions. Just think how powerful that will be to call fire down from heaven. Is that like Elijah? He’ll say, ‘See, I’m just like Elijah.’ But it’s a counterfeit. It’s of Satan. All the world will come in. They’ll be enthusiastic. ‘I saw it; I saw the miracles that happened; people were healed.’ How were they healed? The demons left them, because Satan controls them! Magical things happen. People hugged and kissed each other that were enemies and ready to kill each other before. ‘This is has all got to be of God.’

- How is that going to happen?
- How is that going to take place?

Something else has to happen to make it possible and that’s what is brought out with the mark of the beast, and this is the beast to whom they made the image.

Verse 16: “And he causes all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the bond, to receive a mark in their right hands, or in their foreheads; so that no one may have the ability to buy and sell unless he has the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name” (vs 16-17).

Mark of the Beast

A little update on the mark of the beast. Remember there’s the chip. We covered that the last time we were here. Remember there’s the tattoo, and the tattoo has certain chemical and electrical qualities to it that connects to the bio-electrical impulses within your body so it can work all the time.

I have said for years this is not for buying and selling alone, but to control! All of you have cell phones. That comes into your pocket wherever you are. You can’t see the rays, you can’t hear the rays when they come, but the frequency comes and your phone rings and you pick it up and you answer it. They are working on ways to control people. They are working on ways so that it will work with the tattoo or the chip, or in the forehead.

- Why in the forehead?
- Does that have something to do with the brain?
- Does this have something to do with the brain and the emotions?

I’ve got an article here, Total Recall by Steve Ramirez and Xu Liu.

Total Recall?? Scientists Plant False Memories Into Mice’s Brains,
(digitalafro.com/total-recall-scientists-plant-false-memories-into-mices-brains/)

Guess what they have invented. This happened at MIT. That’s in Cambridge, Massachusetts, down the hall from Professor Gruber. They consider themselves ‘the brilliant elect’ of the world. They’ve been tinkering with rats and mice to find out how the brain works. They developed a way to implant in a mouse brain, which is a precursor to human brains, experiences that never happened and lodge it into their memory.

They were able to train this rat. Put it in a box, put it in another box. In the other box they went ahead and shocked it in its feet. They then took the things from the hippocampus, which is part of the brain, and saw how that registered on the hippocampus of the brain. They then transferred that into a mouse who had never had that experience and put it into the box. Then they had two little wires coming out of the brain of that mouse, and with laser light was able to make that mouse totally afraid that it would be shocked in the feet when he was never ever there. But the experience was transferred from one brain to another.

Think of what they are doing for human beings with that. So, the mark of the beast is going to be something. Why are they working on all of these things and they are calling these two men the brilliant of the brilliant. Oh, yes, how good we are here at MIT and we know all of these things.’

Just wait. Remember the internal combustion engine started with one cylinder. Now we have rockets going to outer space. The telephone started with the telegraph wire and then the hand-crank phone. Now we have the cell phone that you can carry around wherever you are. They also are saying now that ‘we’ll put it in you.’ Let’s just insert the phone right in your tooth. What happens if it shorts? You’re electrocuted on the spot! (humor)

How about this. When I bring this out I want you to think about all those huge buildings up there in Utah. Remember this, that many of those in the agencies of the United States government, who though they get paid by the United States government, do not have loyalties to the United States government nor to the people of the United States.

Why do they have millions and millions of square feet of buildings dedicated to digital things? Could it be there’s enough capacity there so that when the mark of the beast is given to all of those who take it that they will have the number and they will be able to control through ubiquitous microwaves everywhere around the world every person so they won't be violent.

'We now have peace. We all love one another.' What does 1-Thes. 5 say? When they say peace and security, sudden destruction comes upon them like a woman in travail.

Brethren, I think we need to understand this. All these events that we read of in the Bible and everything that's going to transpire is going to be bigger and greater and more fantastic than we have ever imagined in the past.

You tie in all of this transhumanism and cyborgs. What are cyborgs? They are human beings with animal genetics in them! Just think of going to a basketball game where the leading player has kangaroo-leg genes in him. Now we have to put the basket up to 15 feet because he can jump so high. Think about it. It's going to be something.

Economy

I just wanted to update you on these things, to say nothing of what's going to happen to the economy. Did I tell you last time that at the latest G-20 meeting down in Australia all of the central banks have agreed that all money and all accounts everywhere above whatever certain amount the government sets is an investment. It is not money. When the bank fails, the bank can take that money to pay for its debt and you can't have it.

Remember Cyprus? The day is going to come around the world. One Friday night all banks are going to close for ten days. They will have to come up with a new currency. Don't worry, they'll have it all ready because they don't want to have all the riots and wars that are going to take place lest they have it ready. Why would you think the leading central banks of the whole world would agree to do that unless they had something planned. So think about it. These are going to be big things that are going to take place.

Also, remember Jesus said the Gospel will be preached to all nations, to the whole world, be published to the whole world. Now we can do that digitally.

- Think of the hundreds of thousands of websites that have the Bible and parts of the Bible on it.
- Think about all of those preaching various parts of the Gospel, whether in sincerity or not sincerity.
- Think about all the warnings that have come financially, economically, health-wise, and everything that have been going out there.

God is going to send a witness that is going to be so great. When you read in Rev. 11 that all on the earth will see the dead bodies of the two witnesses lying in the streets of Jerusalem, how are they going to see it unless we have all of this universal thing where you can know everything all at once?

That's why the return of Christ is going to be so awesome, and so destructive. It is going to be a thing, brethren, that is going to be absolutely awesome, the very power of God and the return of Christ to this earth! The whole world will be in such an uproar that it's going to fight Christ.

- Think about what we need to do between now and then.
- Think about how our lives need to be between now and then.

I will leave you with that. The Word of God is true and it's going to happen, and it'll probably happen even far greater than what I have been inadequately able to describe today!
