Day 4

God's Plan

God is _____!

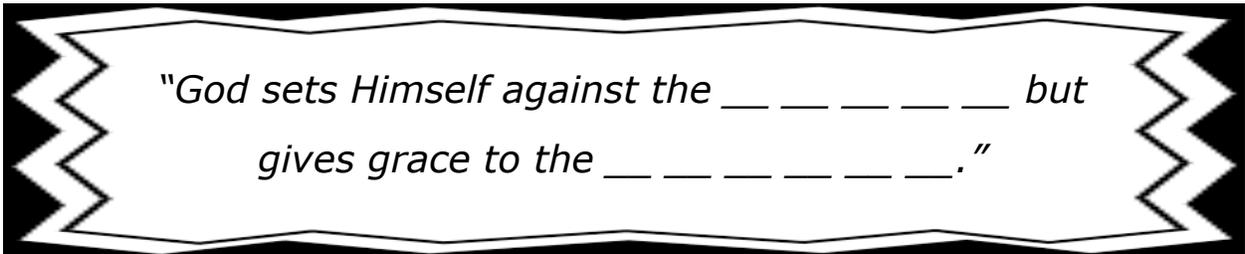

At the present time, we must do these 4 things:

--	--	--	--

To prepare to be...

--	--	--

in God's Kingdom.

We are to _r_ _____ Satan and draw _n_ _____ to God through:

The person who judges a b , judges God and sets himself a God, the Lawgiver.

True or False?

 Though we will help judge, God will do the final judgement.

 We should render vengeance now to help God's plan be fulfilled more quickly.

 God expects us to initiate a closer relationship with Him.

 We are to judge one another now to become better equipped for the Kingdom of God.

 You can't reject God and receive His blessings.

 A select few will escape the judgement of God.

 God continuously judges the nations of the Earth.

God as Judge

The first message to the world when Christ takes the throne at the beginning of the Millennium will be:

What 'standard of righteousness' does God use to judge us?

 Our opinions

 His laws

 Our laws

 Our beliefs

 His statutes

 Our intentions

Why is it important to view God as judge important when we go to pray?

" _____ yourself under the mighty hand of God and He will _____ you in due time."

One example of God's judgement is how He set up blessings and cursings based on one's obedience to His laws. This has been in effect since C_____. Match the result with the actions.

Actions	Results	Biblical Example
Obedience
Disobedience

Why do many people not understand their errors?

"Let the _____ of my mouth and the meditation of my _____ be acceptable in Your sight, O LORD, my _____ and my Redeemer"

Are You the Potter or the Clay?

Label the picture below by naming the "clay" and the "potter".
Hint: YOU are one of them & God is the other.

What does the lesson of the potter and the clay have to do with God's righteous judgement?

God's judgements are always righteous. God always makes His judgements based on what we c . During the Millennium, under God's authority and direction, we will be j in the same manner.
