

THE EIGHTH DAY OF THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES

INTRODUCTION

This time of the year is called Fall, short for “fall of the leaf”. It was called autumn before that, meaning increase. However, before either usage, this time of the year was called HARVEST!

The autumn holydays are Kingdom days; that is, they show God’s plan to establish His kingdom upon this earth. The Day of Trumpets shows the vengeance of God that will come upon the enemies of God at the hands of Jesus Christ. Atonement pictures those who suffer during the Tribulation calling upon God for physical salvation. The humble and contrite will be saved from death to live on in the days of peace under a new King, Jesus Christ. These days of peace and joy will last 1,000 years and are pictured by the first seven days of the Feast of Tabernacles. Then there is the Eighth Day of the Feast of Tabernacles. Many call this day the “Last Great Day”; however, the Bible never refers to it that way nor is it the correct name.

THE EIGHTH DAY OF THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES

So what does the Bible call the eighth day of the Feast of Tabernacles?

[FV] LEVITICUS 23:36 Seven days you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. On the eighth day shall be a holy convocation to you. And you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. It [is] a solemn assembly. And you shall do no servile work [therein].

[FV] JOHN 7:37-39 Now in the last day (in time sequence), the great (“megas” = in importance or rank) [day] of the feast, Jesus stood and called out, saying, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. 38 The one who believes in Me, as the scripture has said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water." 39 But this He spoke concerning the Spirit, which those who believed in Him would soon receive; for [the] Holy Spirit was not yet [given] because Jesus was not yet glorified.

The eighth day of the Feast of Tabernacles is not a separate day from the first seven days nor is it set apart in the Bible. The Feast of Tabernacles is truly eight days long. Jesus calls it the last day and the greatest day OF the Feast of Tabernacles. This distinction is important as we will discover later. First, let’s review the events of the Eighth Day.

THE FINAL DESTRUCTION OF SATAN

The first seven days of the Feast of Tabernacles picture the earth under the rule of Jesus Christ for 1,000 years wherein the Firstfruits rule with Him as spirit beings fashioning a new world. People living during this time will be truly blessed with abundant and joyful lives under a righteous King, free of the deception of Satan. However, Satan must be loosed one last time to wreak his destruction.

[FV] REVELATION 20:7-10 Now when the thousand years have been completed, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison; 8 And he shall go out to deceive the nations that [are] in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, of whom the number [is] as the sand of the sea, to gather them together for war. 9 Then [I saw] them go up upon the breadth of the earth and encircle the camp of the saints, and the beloved city; and fire came down from God out of heaven and consumed them; 10 And the Devil, who deceived them, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet [had been cast]; and they, [Satan and the demons,] shall be tormented day and night into the ages of eternity.

At the end of the Millennium, Satan is released from his imprisonment and gathers armies of evil men to attack Jesus Christ and the saints. Then Jesus Christ, as King of Kings and Lord of Lords and in POWER as GOD, destroys these armies and removes Satan FOREVER. See also Ezekiel 28:12-19.

PHYSICAL RESURRECTION FOR PRE-MILLENNIAL PEOPLES

The Eighth Day of the Feast of Tabernacles also pictures another resurrection.

[FV] REVELATION 20:5 (But the rest (literally, remaining ones) of the dead did not live again (were not revived) until the thousand years were completed.) This [is] the first resurrection.

The phrase "REST of the dead" can only refer to those that had died prior to the millennial rule of Jesus Christ and were NOT resurrected.

[FV] REVELATION 20:11-13 11 Then I saw a great white throne and the one Who was sitting on it, from Whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and no place was found for them. 12 And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God; and [the] books were opened; and another book was opened, which is [the] [book] of life. And the dead were judged out of the things written in the books, according to their works. 13 And the sea gave up the dead [that were] in it, and death and [the] grave (hades) gave up the dead [that were] in them; and they were judged individually, according to their works.

All who died on land and in the seas prior to the Millennium are resurrected to a TIME of judgment as we will see.

[FV] EZEKIEL 37:1-6, 14, 21, 24-27 The hand of the LORD was on me, and brought me by the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of a valley, and it [was] full of bones. 2 And He made me walk among them all around. And behold, very many [were] in the open valley. And lo, [they were] very dry. 3 And He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" And I answered, "O Lord GOD, You know." 4 Again He said to me, "Prophecy to these bones, and say to them, 'O dry bones, hear the Word of the LORD. 5 Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones, "Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live. 6 And I will lay sinews on you, and will bring up flesh on you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live (to have physical life). And you shall know that I [am] the LORD." ' ' " ...14 And I shall put My Spirit in you, and you shall live literally, be revived), and I will place you in your own land. And you shall know that I the LORD have spoken it and have done it," says the LORD.' " ... 24 And David My servant [shall be] king over them. And there shall be one shepherd to all of them. And they shall walk in My ordinances and obey My laws, and do them. 25 And they shall dwell (inhabit) in the land that I have given to Jacob My servant, the land in which your fathers have dwelt. And they shall dwell in it, even they and their children, and their children's children forever. And My servant David [shall be] their ruler forever. 26 Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them. It shall be an everlasting covenant with them. And I will place them, and multiply them, and will set My sanctuary in their midst forever. 27 And My tabernacle shall be with them. Yea, I will be their God, and they shall be My people.

There is no physical resurrection at the beginning of the Millennium so this refers to the physical resurrection on the Eighth Day of the Feast of Tabernacles as told in Revelation. Ezekiel saw Israelites who died before the Millennium that are resurrected to physical lives again only this time it will be WITHOUT Satan! They will be taught God's law for the FIRST time and live in peace with their children! God will judge them by HOW they LIVE.

PHYSICAL RESURRECTION FOR ALL - ISRAELITES & GENTILES

However, this resurrection is NOT just the Israelites.

[FV] MATTHEW 10:15 Truly I say to you, it shall be more tolerable for [the] land of Sodom and Gomorrah in [the] day of (the Great White Throne) judgment than for that city.

[FV] MATTHEW 12:41-42 [The] men of Nineveh shall stand up (literally, awaken from death) in the judgment (G2920 = krisis) in the judgment with this generation and shall condemn it, because they repented at the proclamation of Jonah; and behold, a greater than Jonah [is] here. 42 [The] queen of [the] south shall rise up in the judgment (the Great White Throne) with this generation and shall condemn it, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a greater than Solomon [is] here.

The resurrection of the Eighth Day is a time when the people of Nineveh, Ethiopia, Sodom, Gomorrah - Gentiles AND Israelites - are resurrected together even though they lived in completely different centuries. ALL PEOPLE that died prior to the Millennium will be resurrected. "In the day of judgment" and "in the judgment" refer to the Great White Throne Judgment which is a theme of the Eighth Day of the Feast of Tabernacles.

THE EIGHTH DAY IS A TIME OF JUDGMENT

[FV] ISAIAH 65:20-23 20 There will not be an infant who lives but a few days, nor an old man that has not filled his days, for the child will die a hundred years old (there will be children!); but the sinner [who is] a hundred years old shall be accursed. 21 And they will build houses and live [in them]; and they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit. 22 They will not build, and another live [in them]; they will not plant, and another eat; for like the days of a tree [are] [so will be] the days of My people, and My elect will long enjoy the work of their hands. 23 They will not labor in vain, nor bring forth children for calamity. For they [are] the seed of the beloved of the LORD, and their offspring with them (again, there will be children!).

These people are not resurrected to an instantaneous judgment of their lives previously lived in ignorance of God. The Eighth Day of the Feast of Tabernacles is a time when those who lived and died from the days of Adam to the return of Jesus Christ will live again, this time being taught the fullness of God's law. They will also be judged for the FIRST time. PEOPLE ARE NOT JUDGED ACCORDING TO WHEN THEY LIVED BUT WHEN THEY WERE TAUGHT GOD'S LAW! This is why there is more than one time of judgment!

MORE THAN ONE TIME OF JUDGMENT

There is more than one judgment period. The first judgment is now on the saints of God:

[FV] I PETER 4:17 For the time [has come] [for] judgment to begin with the household of God; and if it first [begins] with us, what [will be] the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God?

The second judgment is during the Millennium (the first seven days of the Feast of Tabernacles):

[FV] REVELATION 20:4 And I saw thrones; and they that sat upon them, and judgment was given to them ...

So the judgment of the Eighth Day, also called the Great White Throne Judgment, is the third and final judgment period.

THAT "GREAT DAY OF THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES"

[FV] JOHN 7:37 Now in the last day, the great ("megas" = in importance or rank) [day] of the feast, Jesus stood and called out, saying, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink.

Jesus called the Eighth Day of the Feast of Tabernacles the last day of the Feast of Tabernacles and the greatest day of the Feast of Tabernacles and, no wonder, because the Eighth Day is the time when billions of people who knew only hunger and thirst, tortures and murders, war and bloodshed, poverty and need, death and mourning, will live again in a world of peace and love living with God's perfect law written in their hearts. Satan will be removed and they will have such abundance! The Eighth Day is the FINAL judgment which brings destruction to the remaining enemies of God and eternal life to billions of people! Can you picture it? "Of the increase of [His] government and peace [there shall be] no end ..." - Isaiah 9:7. It is the time when the enemies of God are gone and God's children will live FOREVER. The Eighth Day is the greatest day of the Feast of Tabernacles because it is the day of the greatest harvest of mankind!
